FROM:
Director of Training and Education

SUBJECT: Visit of Dr. and Mrs. Elie Wiesel

STAT

1. In connection with your meeting with Dr. Elie Wiesel, 1986 Nobel Peace Prize laureate, prior to his talk in the Headquarters Auditorium on 11 May 1988 at 1400 hours, we are attaching the original invitation sent to Dr. Wiesel, biographic information provided by Dr. Wiesel's office, and selected passages written by and about Elie Wiesel. His talk is entitled "A Policy of Humanism."

2. The following schedule is planned for Dr. Wiesel's visit:

- 1300 hours - Dr. and Mrs. Wiesel arrive at the main lobby of Headquarters Building and are met by the Director of Training and Education who will escort the Wiesels to the Executive Dining Room.
- 1305 hours - The group is joined for lunch by the Deputy Director for Administration, the Director, Public Affairs Office and a representative from the Center for the Study of Intelligence, Office of Training and Education.
- 1345 hours - The Deputy Director for Administration, Director of Training and Education, and the Director, Public Affairs Office escort Dr. and Mrs. Wiesel to the DCI's office for a brief meeting prior to proceeding to the Auditorium.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence
VIA: Deputy Director for Administration
STAT FROM:
Director of Training and Education
SUBJECT: Appearance of Dr. Elie Wiesel in the Agency Guest Speaker Program
REFERENCE: Your Ltr to Dr. Wiesel dtd 16 February 1988

1. Author, professor and Nobel Peace Prize recipient Dr. Elie Wiesel has accepted your invitation to participate in the Agency Guest Speaker Program in the Headquarters Auditorium on Wednesday, 11 May 1988, from 1400-1530 hours.

2. It is customary for the Director or, in his absence, the Deputy Director of Central Intelligence, to introduce the speaker. We understand from your office, however, that you will not be able to introduce Dr. Wiesel or attend the program that day. Since the DDCI is also unavailable, we have arranged for the Executive Director to make the introduction.

3. Because of the international status of Dr. Wiesel, and the importance to us all of his topic, "A Policy of Humanism," we wonder if your schedule might permit you to meet with him for a few minutes either before or after the auditorium presentation.

Dear Dr. Wiesel:

About a year ago, Dr. Robert M. Gates, then Acting Director of Central Intelligence, wrote to you extending an invitation to participate in our Guest Speaker Program during calendar year 1987. Unfortunately, your schedule at that time did not permit a trip to the Washington, D.C. area, but your office suggested we try again in early 1988. This letter is to re-extend our invitation to be a speaker in this Program during 1988.

We invite distinguished guest speakers to address some 300 to 500 employees of the Central Intelligence Agency in order to improve our employees' understanding of national and international issues and to provide them an intellectual stimulus. Guests in the past year included George Will and Dr. James Buchanan. The program normally consists of a lecture of approximately 30 to 45 minutes, followed by a 20 to 30 minute question period. Lectures are normally scheduled from 2:00 to 3:15 p.m. The guest speaker honorarium is $500.

I would be pleased if you could honor us with your presence on a mutually convenient date during 1988. If you are able to accept, [redacted] our Conference Coordinator, will be pleased to discuss all aspects of the arrangements with your staff. She can be reached on [redacted]

Sincerely,

/s/ William H. Webster

Dear Dr. Wiesel:

Several times a year, we invite distinguished guest speakers to address some 300 to 500 employees of the Central Intelligence Agency. Our objective is to improve our employees' understanding of national and international issues as well as to provide them an intellectual stimulus. Guests in the past two years have included Ambassador Jeane Kirkpatrick, Art Buchwald, Ambassador Vernon Walters, General Paul Gorman, and Roger B. Smith. The program normally consists of a lecture of approximately 30 to 45 minutes, followed by a 20 to 30 minute question period. Lectures are normally scheduled from 2:00 to 3:15 p.m. The guest speaker honorarium is $500.

I should like to extend an invitation to you to participate in this program and would be pleased if you could honor us with your presence on a mutually convenient date during 1987. If you are able to accept, [redacted] our Dean of Conferences, will be pleased to discuss all aspects of the arrangements with your staff. She can be reached on [redacted]

Sincerely,

/s/ Robert M. Gates
